tained by the subscription of land and county honds to assure the early completion of the road.

only proves that he is not a Jew.

CLAYTON is the veriest tool of the Administration. In prosecution of Brant's plan of usurping supreme

Russia with cotton samples that comparisons may be instituted, not only as to the value of the cotton, but the from the South, he will have, perhaps, as to the value of the cotton, but the from the South, he will have, perhaps, by officers of the age. We hope he will be successful, though we fear that, hailing as to the value of the cotton, but the from the South, he will have, perhaps, by officers of the age. The conspiract of the consultant value of the cotton samples that comparisons may be instituted, not only as to the value of the cotton, but the from Charleston or Norfolk is greatly The Way for the West to the Sea.

along the Mississippi. The APPEAL mode of conducting the most prolitable and largest branch of trade in Memphis. We have been looking for a movement of this sort for some time. When it is remembered that by the custom so long prevalent here banks have too frequently been left. Tombigby rivers and of the Missouri parks have to been looking to the figure and largest branch of trade in the bill placed before the Committee on Commerce at a late session of Congress, which contemplated the diversion of the superabundant water of the Tennessee into the Alabama and banks have too frequently been left.

Tombigby rivers and of the Missouri of the Interval by the custom so long prevalent here banks have too frequently been left with an empty bag to hold, we think that the change will be halled with satisfaction by the larger number of the cotton trade, which we rejoice to be able to say represents much of the larger number of the satisfaction by the larger number of the cotton trade, which we rejoice to be able to say represents much of the larger number of the larger number of the cotton trade, which we rejoice to be able to say represents much of the larger number of the larger

THE Camden (Ark.) Democrat automotes the organization of the Camden and Red River Railroad Company. Its purpose is to extend the Pine Riuff branch of the Memphis and Little Rock road to Shrevport. The Democrat thinks that enough money can be obtained by the applauded, and Justice Moore ordered the prisoner to be committed for trial.

The Boston Post says, "a Georgian is suspected of cannibalism." This plantations. They are also making its suspected of cannibalism." This plantations. They are also making the property springs from the fact, we presume, that Mr. Stephens has been tryling to chaw us up.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

We submit that this effort does not We submit that this effort does not prove that Slephens is a cannibal. It prove that Slephens is a cannibal. It teresting to housekeepers to know the reckless, selfish ambition of im-that in a private family here, where bruted partizans and politicians. The Scripture bath it that the sow Chinese servants are exclusively emthat was washed, has returned to its ployed, the experiment has proved so wallow. The Courier Journal has never gratifying and successful, that the parsible. Moreover, the surest way of getting a hog to a desired point is to attempt to drive it in the opposite direction. In this Mr. Stephens blundary of the surest way of them for the best domestics that could be imported from Europe. They are docile, trustworthy, and do what they have once more that though the Latin races have been always considered the most of the first state of the firs been cleansed. The task was impos- ties declare they would not exchange squeamishness and punctillo which Slavonic races are by no means besas, and the falsehoods of the Ku- this princely prize, and Commission-Klux Committee, plainly portend this ers were appointed by Gov. Hoffman result, and illustrate the pur- to examine and report upon their poses of the party in power. What- several inventions. This they did in several inventions. This they did in amid its peasantry, Russia had two ever it may cost of freedom and violated popular and State rights, Grant who had entered the lists. The ans determined to perpetuate his tenure | nouncement of this fact having been of office, and that of his adherents. made, and also that the Commissionof office, and that of his adherents. made, and also that the Commission-Clayton is his most trustworthy agent. ers would receive additional tenders ing the minority of Peter the Great cation was not incorrect. The great Read the dispatch from Little Rock, and make another examination in was the most important. On the majority of the conspirators were stu-Russia imported in 1867, and does United States went to work with adnearly every year, about 38,000,000 ditional spirit and energy, Mr. F. W. Mahan, of Memphis, among middle classes and the small landed like Serno-Solowiewitch, Tcherkessoff October, inventors throughout the strange to say, none of this cotton them. He will present, as the reomes from the United States, and sult of his labor it is thought by exthe cotton mills of Moscow and St. perts, the best invention yet offered ber conspiracy took place. And since since those bringing money had, o Petersburg, which run 6,000,000 or 7,000,000 spindles, are almost exclusively fed from the fields of Egypt, Brazil and Italy. It might be well to send an agent of the Gulf States to furnishing one of the best inventions. send an agent of the Gulf States to furnishing one of the best inventions. The harbor of St. Petersburg since many of the Commissioners are ander I thought for some time of ence he made, between the two cases and shipments of new cotton could be faith. The second week in October seems no reason why American cotton canals may be dug by machinery cannot be substituted in the Russian used by Lesseps in connecting the unsurpassed utility of the Eric canal broke out only on the day of in competition with divers railway EMPEROR NICHOLAS' ACCESSION TO ir merchants to a "notice" in an- means, not only of shortening the other column, signed by the several Banks of the city, which we think will work a total revolution in the along the Mississippi. The Appeal Constantine's personal character made nounced by Messrs. Harris and Chalmers. The learned foreigner was especially amazed that in 'his wild western country a gentleman abould speak, as General Chalmers did, with speak, as General Chalmers did, with nounced by Messrs. Harris and Chala canal which drains this great valley of its wealth, and relieves its lowlands of superabundant waters. Such is the speak, as General Chalmers did, with scheme of W. L. Young and his asall the real and fire of youth; and that sociates, incorporated by State Legis-in the discussion of such facts as those latures. The air-line distance from the prisoner to be committed for trial. to Liverpool is lessened sixteen hun-tributed to the infin

NDAY APPEAL

Russian Consulracies.

what was going on in those distant

RUSSIA AND ITS DESTINIES. Without speaking of endless riots

THE CONSPIRACY OF 1825. Alexander's sudden death, and don.

THE THRONE.
Alexander died leaving no children.

THE Union and American says that tion of States and of the Federal Govthe Chinese are fast taking the place of the negro laborer on the Southern of the negro laborer on the Southern cution of an undertaking like this, and has been their almost invariable aim Another, and not less striking characteristic of all these conspiracies, is that they are conceived and carried out almost exclusively by quite young and obscure men. DURING THE LAST ELEVEN YEARS there were at least eleven plots organized; and scarcely in one of them, except those directly connected with Polish affairs, could any man of note or even of mature age be found among the conspirators. Students of the uni-versitles, headed by some second-rate are of late years among the shining characteristics of servantgalism."

The great State of New York, al world and have been more feared than given as a given which as a given which are the properties. The great state of New York, al-Grant's plan of usurping supreme power, defined in the Ku-Klux act, be paves the way for the declaration of martial law, and the re-subjection of the people of Arkansas to martial law. It is not the purpose of Grant that could read and have been more leared than similar Moscow attempts. Carbonarism spread terror all over Europe in the early part of this century, and the re-subjection of the people of Arkansas to martial law. It is not the purpose of Grant that would make not less than three miles the purpose of Grant that would make not less than three miles an hour, and yet would not occasion.

The great State of New York, always first in winatever increases comparison arism spread terror all over Europe in the early part of this century, and this terror has not given way for a much longer time than the reministration to being sent to Siberia could be expected from the schemes of the great French revolution, while Eastern countries, including niles tellows, who had no connection whatever with the mean of successful inventor of a steam canal-boat that would make not less than three miles are proved to the foolish, pendicular to the period of the great State of New York, always first in winatever increases comparison arism spread terror all over Europe in the early part of this century, and the re-subjection of the people of Arkansas to martial law. Southern States shall participate in an hour, and yet would not occasion Russia, were scarcely ever quiet for a whatever with the mass of people, and the next Presidential election. The a damaging wash of the banks. A few consecutive years; but no one in no other basis of action than a few fortunes of South Carolina and Arkan-great many competitors entered for Europe or America cared much about purely theoretical sentences borrowed from St. Simon, Fourier, Proudhon or Owen, so intermixed as to become a real chaos. Prince Dolgorousky, the head of the secret police and the President of all the secret tribunals, used to divide the BUSSIAN CONSPIRATORS INTO TWO teenth century, that of Stenka Razine; the other in the eighteenth, that of Pougatchef. Military riots were also those with empty heads and those other hand, Court conspiracies carried dents, having no means of existence proprietors were the only classes that or Ounkoisky) coming early into posremained more or less quiet until session of their paternal fortunes, wer about 1825, when the so-called Decemdrawn into the plot by mere ambition emancipating the seris and introduc-ing a parliamentary form of govern-ment. But the mystic dispositions of mind of that sovereign, which led him to conclude the holy alliance, were spedily increasing, and caused him soon to give up his libers projects, this was the chief reason that gave birth to the December conspiracy, which did not ripen at the time. Netchayef—is dwelling safely in Lonment seems to have become accus tomed to conspiracies, and therefore no more inclined to deal with them in the ferocious manner that prevailed during Nicholas' reign. The trial re-them which they sflorded me, you will fat in a political campaign, and lose give them a place in your SUNDAY APHis flesh in the confined struggle at the bar. The secret of this was to be found in his will. He distilled The sea hath many voices, sisters mine, Varied as winds of hill and mountain a

When mourning sadly 'mid the solemn Or chanting gloriously to midnight Or whispering where the dead in al no missing beauty we could wish for more, a good Latin scholar, reading Horaces Cicero and Quintillar. The song wesgay when first I caught its tone. But word and subtle came another key, Broathing an interlinked sob and moan, Like the wild minor hillably That fishers' wives sing as they watch the sea.

and spread Vhile e'er anon a bright note cleft the through,
Like sunbeam burning a bright path of red,
Down which the choral moved with solearn tread.

nd words ne'er told save to poetic sense, When in that chorsi chanted to my cars, hings dimiy seen and felt, but never spak For dearth of speech, all sait with huma And heart with gladness full, yet faint with As, harrying up the sands, it kimed my From where the leebergs rear their glitte

"And everywhere the earth is good and fal And things of beauty last for aye and aye But while it spake, the wind in cruel spite Broke its while wreath and trampled near the spray— The scattered bubbles quick were born stray;
The kildee called to kildee 'long the beach
Anti 'mid the rocking byliows far away.
The sea birds flow in mystical array.

hear. Though sad as life and death, and like th A song so sad, I'm pained to tell it you. Our waves are all the tears of all the wor. Driven to and fro by sighs engarner grouns, Still echoed from the cradle to the bier, For life at best is sphered into a tear. This mighty basin called by you theses

Is simply earth's great treasure-house things Too sad for Heaven, too pure for dark Hade
Which to the human heart doth memoris bring
As sweet as David's harp, or mad as Israel' king."

brary and striking his hands together with an expression of light in his coun-enance, he would exclaim 'My brave ls!' I think he knew Shale der, the following described year state, by in Shelby county, Tennesser Beginning the northeast, corner of McLessurs award and Lathum avenue, running realth interest chains and ninety-three links (193) of Trigg's avenue, eight chains and state of the poels, beyond Burns, and ninety-three links (193) of Trigg's avenue, thence more and running thence east with McLessur's avenue, thence are with McLessur's avenue, thence are with McLessur's avenue, thence are with McLessur's avenue with Trigg avenue, the head is a book. He aiways staticed it. He knew little of astronomy or the natural sciences of Latham avenue with Trigg avenue, thence westwardly and parallel with the north side of Trigg avenue with the north side of Trigg avenue 100 feet to a stake; thence with wardly and parallel with the north side of Trigg avenue 100 feet to a stake; thence and number of arguing against him in an important case before Judge Haynes, his present partner, then Judge, in which he made a captivating speech, the Judge remarking, as he came down from the bench, 'What a fine effort; but he sailed above the questions,' I think that if he had confined himself to the bar he would have made a very creat lawyer. and Milton almost by heart. He die fined himself to the bar he would have made a very great lawyer. He often said that the wear and tear of court was too much for him. He would get ound in his will. He disliked contradiction, defeat or opposition; and at the bar a man must meet with them all. He cannot choose his causes nor command his victories. A pigmy may overthrow nim with an over looked precedent.

"He was very fond of reading aloud. the original." Pleasanton's Theory.

from a Lordon letter of the Philadrhia Age.] I forgot to mention before, that save read your townsman's, General Pleasanton's, very pleasant and instructive lecture on the effects of the violet ray of light, or rather color, on vegetation, with especial reference to the cultivation of vines. I am, my-self, an humble follower of the garden divinities but after of and additional followers. self, an numble follower of the garden divinities, but afar off, and claiming to know very little of the mysteries over which they preside. Priagus has but au indifferent name, and Ver-tumaus and Pomona were deities rather of the orchard than the garden, but in me they have all but in me they have all a devotee, who, if his knowledge were equal to his zeal, would long since have obtained a high place in their represent ative priesthood. Gen. Pleasanton's lecture was so very suggestive that one longed to ask him a few questions as he went on, more fully to corroborate the theory he had set up, and to thoroughly comprehend the results alleged to have been obtained. This was especially my case, because the general is reported to have made to the facts of my own experience, at the theory had seen of the facts of my own experience, and the manners nor morals it iambic, dactylic? The strain finats in attive priesthood. Gen. Pleasanton's sanctums, hotels, and domestic retirement is evinced which at once startle discernible. The rich storehouses of one's imagination will offer turn a pretty sentence. What matter if Truth be hidden so deeply it will never know resurrection? Even confessing the existence of a certain particular than their arms and incine to the belief that that "memory of something" was a sizh and a size of metrical composition? Is it imbic, dactylic? The strain finats in attill, clear, melodious, but without any minor current of pathos, or a mingled touch of intangible sadmess of one's imagination will offer turn a pretty sentence. What matter if Truth be hidden so deeply it will never know resurrection? Even confession the existence of a certain particular them. At last, however, they pressed the cultivation of the facts of my own experience, little upon this subject as we turn the his zeal, would long since have obclaims are perhaps less and less wonderful the more we look into them. For instance, he states that he obtained fruit the second year of his plantation, which is true enough, but it rather misleads, as the vines were a waited, a blank sheet and an already rusty pen would be laid aside for another occasion; but the instinct which injustice so quickly warms into action, to gether with that protective sense, plants, he is reported as saying, that in old grape growing countries "it takes five or six years before a single bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to record a simple bunch of grapes can be obtained."

Against this permit me to claims are perhaps less and less won-derful the more we look into them. Keptember 21, and scan the result of hog and hominy and other overpow-ering associations of a time when sissippi steamboat."

Against this permit me to record a simple fact. I have a vine now bearing fruit, in the open air, which is not yet three years old, as I separated it myself from the parent tree, in the autumn of 1868, in the summer of which year I took possession of the place I now occupy, and when divided from the tree its bole was certainly not larger than a pipe stem. Again, the General intimates that it is unusual for vines to bear abundantly several years in succession; but he will find on further inquiry, is also a mishor of abudantly in 1863, the year we of those saventurous splitits who has gone before, our expectation is raised to a remarkable protions of the friend the inmitable, accompanying artists. From what has gone before, our expectation is raised to a remarkable protation is raised to a remarkable protation is raised to a remarkable. From what has gone before, our expectation is raised to a remarkable protation is raised to a remarkable which pen and pencil have already wrought is an earnest of what is to come, we shall doubtless continue to be not only pleased, but delighted, charmed—in a word, overwhelmed—by the further, promised delineations of acroes and incidents between Memphis and Vicksburg. P. L. C.

Beath of the foundary in and the Italian government has just the hospital of the Triotia del Pellgrini which pen and pencil have already wrought is an earnest of what is to come, we shall doubtless continue to be not only pleased, but delighted, charmed—in a word, overwhelmed—by the further, promised delineations of acroes and incidents between Memphis and Vicksburg. P. L. C.

Beath of the fallow, and the fallow is se

THE BURNING BUSH.

Prome on the earth with shame-bowed a Set ye saiser lie? Then from her heart thy prying tread Of curion;? Lasve her with God, what books it thes That sin its doom has found? Cant thou thes shoe from off thy fact, They tesud on holy ground. Comes a repentant, wayward child Back to a parent's love?
Seer thou ye h loving his and prayer To int his heart above.
The iron heet of stern control But serves to crass it down.
Then can these shoes from of they feet.
They stand on hoty ground. Has death a shiring victim found
For his unersing dan?
With waarping steps of sanutadence
Crush not the lonely heart.
The ceaseless, noiseless tread of since
Will bring antendation round,
Then coat these above fromt of thy feet,
Thou treadest hely ground

The soothing tone of sympathy, The noise insus of sympathy.
The holise insus of charity.
Pairis b. youd price will prove.
Be voiceless where this bearing bush.
Fing: its dread gleams around.
And "put thy shoes from off thy feet.
For this is holy ground."
Little MERIWETHER. BHEASPRINGS, September 4, 1871.

OH! KISS US GOOD NIGHT! Young and so tender, Eyes of brown aplander es that glow like the raven's dark wi Form like a fair? Light and so air; that is sweeter than bird-notes Pace brightly beaming. Soni westly dreaming love, and a lover, far, far away; Tears gently stealing Down soft cheeks, revealing and more, than the young heart any.

God bless her ever,
Forever and ever!
Reep her guildless, and happy, a bright!
Make me, her lover,
For ays worthy of her,
both may be cowned with the garls of Right. Should Then units us,

Father, delight us
With all that can possibly give on delight;
And when its day closing,
With hearts still reposing
On Thee and Tay glory—oh! kiss us goo might: QUILP, Ja.

Social Equality-A Corresponden Unmercifully Hundled.

How long, oh! how long, are these ubiqutous characters the "Special Cor-respondent" and "Our own Artist," to roam at large and villliy and car-icature everything Southern? Neither men nor women, manners nor morals as they speed her on her way. And tion was the elevation of labor, by the we adjure all stemboat masters, who wish to see themselves as they are seen of the world; who desire to become thoroughly abased in their own as the War of Independence, waged seen of the world; who desire to be come thoroughly abased in their own estimation, by the complete mortification of all-saff-sufficiency to invest at once in Every Saturday, and behold their prototype in a countenance midway between that of a Caiffornia miner and a Baltimore plug ugly, which speaks too elequently for itself to be discanted upon.

But all simply hawan considerations pale and lade, the turn of a nose or chin, the curve of a mouth, or in the brisiling inshaven cheeks are mere matters of moushine, viewed in conjunction with the stupendous shirt-trill which etiracts and fixes the eye of the beholder. Does the master of the Bobert E. Lee, of the Natches, or any of their conferes acknowledge the possession of a garment adorned with such extraordinary lengths and and fullness of ruffling? If so, while "inspectors" are in such demand, pray let the wardrobes of the above named gentiemen be inspected, and this obnoxious article, that bears vulgarity and afrontery on its face, be condemaed.

How diverse are the impressions How diverse are the impressions different individuals receive from identical circumstances. Is it because that being to the manor-born, our ears surfeited with melody from the cradle up, that the sensitive chord is blunted which should respond to that "sad, far-away, tropical undertone to all purely negro music; a memory of something with which our race, at least is not familiar; a wild freedom, not born of proclaimed emancipation?" How gracefully Mr. Keeter embodies an idea, which those who do not know the negro character might readily ac-the negro character might readily accept. In our experience their songs have generally seemed to be an involuntary outburst of glee, an escape of redundant animal spirits, as they "swelled in the air," high and loud, and frequently with nasal intonation, but to dur prosaic finery, without a particle of the "weird" effect ascribed.

"Surprising" we confess they are Surprising" we confess they are as exhibiting a strength of lungs capaci-ated for "holding on" indefinitely; "surprising" in sentiment, in metre, in tune. At this fortunate moment, is wafted to our unappreciate veers from an extraordinary scene which took an adjacent colton field an unadultar. place in the little fortress of Civiti Casan adjacent cotton field an anadulter-ated negro song, both in conception and execution, one which is poured forth with such a gusto that we should judge it to be a prime favorite. We trust that a stanza will not be con-sidered amiss: will also perhaps remember the edi-fying pisty with which the rotaves read their braviaries, and informed their fees that swill judgment was

Gasparent's Band, From a Letter of the Romon Curre spondent of the New York Post.]

Your readers will perhaps remember sure to overlake them; and the cool-ness with which another set of the in abitants of the sort attempted to Ira-ternize with them, and signified their willingness to accompany them to Rome. These latter gentlemen were Rock'ee my soul. Rock'ee my soul, In de bosom of fader Abraham. Rock'ee my soul. Rock'ee my soul. For de day did break and de sun did r Rock'es my soul. Rock'es my soul.

And da: mornin' star did fill my soul.

Rock'es my soul. Bock'es my soul.

Ob, Rock'es my soul."

Will "our correspondent" classify